Dear Reader:

1968-69 has been an exciting year at E.N.C. As you flip through the pages you will readily observe that there were some new and interesting social programs, some new clubs, and a lot of action. I have deliberately used the candid pictures to try to capture the spirit of these events. I have tried to comply with your suggestions, in making this yearbook a more enjoyable one for YOU.

Seniors . . . congratulations. I present this book to you. It has been your year of decisions; decisions that will determine some of your future, if not in some cases all of your future life. Life is no easy experience out there in the "big bad world". You must do your best. It is so exciting to be living in today's world. So much to do and so many things to think about. Apply yourselves and be happy. Happiness will come after you have succeeded in doing your best. Good luck and may God bless each one of you.

There have been some people who have been a big help this year. I would have had to hand out blank pages and crayons if it was not for one photographer, Ken Murphy, and his workers at Dodge-Murphy Photographers, Inc. Ken certainly has been a big help. His ideas and suggestions have been incorporated, I hope, to your approval and enjoyment. Thank you Ken, you have done an excellent job. Next we have Mr. Don Doyle, the publisher of our book. He has been in my office, I don't know how many times, to help me. We have sat for hours and just discussed ideas before we ever laid out any of the pages. Thank you Don, you've been wonderful. Dr. Kauffman has produced our art work for the book and helped to coordinate the entire process, Thank you, Dr. Kauffman for your patience and ability.

If I tried to list all of the people who have helped me, I fear I would forget some. I have so much enjoyed the willingness on the part of so many students to help with the book. It is your book this year. Your ideas are there and so are many hours of many people's work there. Thank you so much. There are two people I would like to especially thank for their help and they are Barb Baker and Sotiros Polemenakos. Barb was the literary editor and has done an excellent job. All of those pictures have captions because of her. I rest assured her book next year will be a superb one. Barb, thanks a million. Steve Polman, as you may know him, has worked very hard on coming up with the money we needed to produce this book for you. Thanks to Steve we were able to have the beautiful color section for Homecoming.

Me, well, I am glad it is all over. I cannot begin to tell you how much I have learned from his job. Thank you for giving me this opportunity. I wanted it to be your book, I hope you have and will enjoy it for many years.

Just one last idea; be yourself, your very best self. Life is so much fun that way. Honestly!

Editor-in-Chief

10/12/69 "David . . . I want you to thank all the people at E.N.C. for all their thoughts and prayers, I needed them."

Faye Lee Narlee

May 22, 1948—Nov. 12, 1969

You know, this has been a very unusual year at Eastern Nazarene College. Our school year has been filled with action — a very versatile kind of action, too. From panty raids and police participation to accreditation committees and debate tournaments.

During this year we made a very significant progress. The Administration has succeeded in their part of the task in guiding and expanding E.N.C. We have reached the point when a new gymnasium is no longer a distant dream but it will rather become a reality in the near future.

Our Student Council has worked very hard in representing the students and promoting our welfare. In a time when student protest and violence is the order of the day, we have been able to be a part of our world while at the same time we have kept our Christian standards, intact.

In dedicating our yearbook we wanted to select someone who has made outstanding contributions to our community, in the academic, religious, and social fields. He is a man with an open mind and a man who faces student problems with a great deal of concern and experience. He is concerned with the academic development of students for he is one of our most distinguished professors. Outside the lecture hall he has successfully helped many of us in our unique personal problems.

So that at this time I am very privileged to present the dedication of the 1969 Nautilus to Dr. Donald P. Brickley.

IN RECOGNITION AND APPRECIATION OF
YOUR SINCERE DEDICATION TO THE SEARCH-
ING YOUTH OF EASTERN NAZARENE COLLEGE
AS AN EDUCATOR AND ADMINISTRATION, YOUR CONCERN FOR EACH INDIVIDUAL AND
THEIR HAPPINESS AS WELL AS YOUR RADIANT
CHRISTIAN CONCERN AND HONESTY, YOUR WILLINGNESS TO SUBORDINATE YOUR OWN INTERESTS FOR THAT OF THE STUDENTS, AND FOR YOUR VALUABLE AND MOST EFFI-CIENT SERVICE AS DEAN OF STUDENTS,
WE, THE STAFF OF THE 1969 NAUTILUS, TAKE GREAT PLEASURE IN DEDICATING OUR AN-NUAL TO YOU . . .

DR. DONALD P. BRICKLEY

Beauty . . . Did you ever really stop to think how much variation beauty adds to the otherwise monotonous beat of our lives? The awe we feel when viewing the masterworks of man: towering skyscrapers, seemingly reaching for a destination; complex road systems, appearing to seek direction; and works of art, displaying man's search for himself. Each of these serves to bring a certain type of beauty into our lives. But not only in these extensions of man can beauty be found, but within man himself, there too is beauty, a noble, unexpressible beauty which, of all of God's living creations, is unique to mankind.

Manifested in the works of nature man may also find beauty, every phase of Nature's accomplishment is beautiful because of its very essence. For example, the diamond, possibly the most beautiful of all of Nature's gifts. Each facet, every edge, sparkles brightly, seemingly so fragile, yet so hard, sure, and definite. The Nautilus staff has chosen the diamond, with its possible analogy to man, as its theme for the 1969 Nautilus. Just as the diamond shines differently for those who view it from different angles, so the reflection or impression one receives from another individual is determined by his perspective. As each facet of the diamond reflects light in a different manner, so does each facet of a man's personality display a unique part of his character. Thus, the staff has designed this yearbook to display these different facets in the lives of the students of Eastern Nazarene College.

Form - Movement

Man is so worried
About not being seen
With the out of style
Or the last place team.

"I can't go there,"
Or "what will they say"
Is the common worry
Of Americans today.

Someone else has it,
We're never the one's;
Somebody to follow
Seems to look safest in our long run.

It makes one pause
And stop to ponder
What it is we're looking for
Always just "yonder".

Around each new corner,
In this year's new style,
Is that where happiness has been waiting
All this while?

The answer is yours.
I can't really say,
For I don't seem to have a thought of my own
This day.

David A. Narlee

JUNIOR CHAPEL

The Reverend Peter Marshall, Jr., spoke in the Junior Thanksgiving Chapel.

SENIOR CHAPEL

STUDENT FORUM

Bill Wheeler, President, moderates discussion on "The Relevance of Chapel."

STUDENT CONCERN

Students converge on the Administration Building after walking out of chapel.

Bill Wheeler and Linda Alverson show concern, as do many other students, about the Dr. Brickley situation.

Silence and thought seem to pervade.

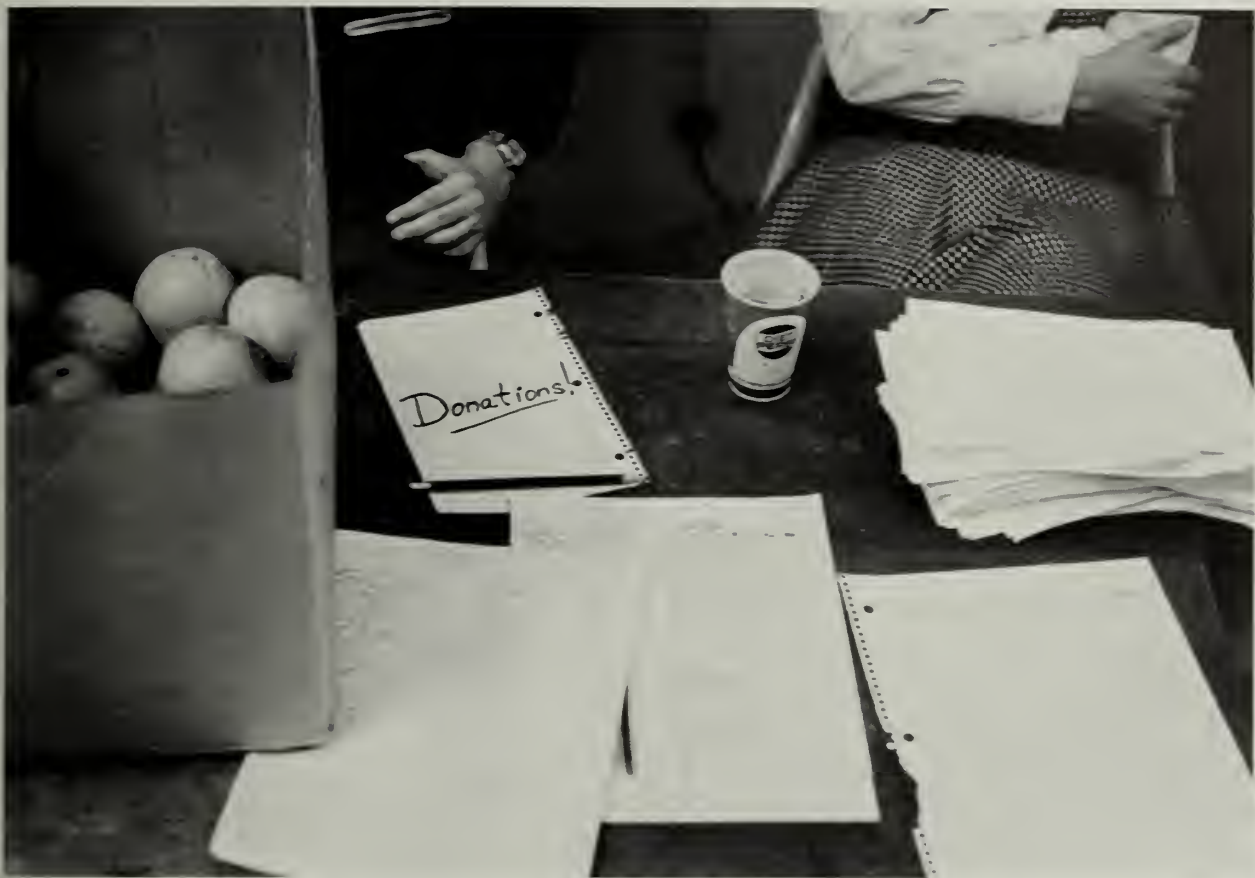

Students sign a petition requesting Dr. Brickley's reinstatement as Dean of Students after his sabbatical.

Concern

Some students felt that by fasting, only eating oranges, the administration would see the students' deep concern.

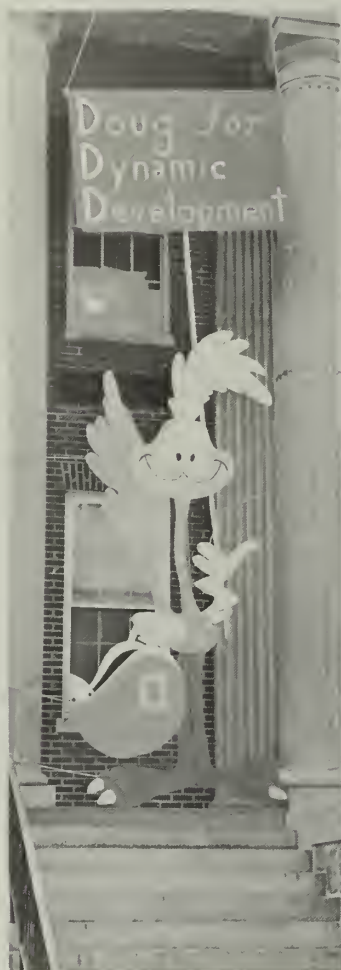

Unfortunately, the only good result this fast seemed to have was to boost the sales for the Florida orange raisers.

"Won't you buy an orange? One for a dime, three for a quarter."

STUDENT COUNCIL ELECTIONS

NEW ENGLAND DISTRICT

REV. KENNETH PEARSALL

"O my soul, thou hast said unto the Lord, Thou art my Lord: my goodness extendeth not to thee; but to the saints that are in the earth, and to the excellent, in whom is all my delight."

"College Church"

INQUISITIVE COLLEGE STUDENTS,
alert to living in an awesome time,
probe issues ancient yet perennial:

"What is man?"

"Know thyself."

"What ought I to do?"

matters perplexing,
profound,
disturbingly personal.

They need a ministry
alert,
responsive and supporting,
prophetic, also probing,
articulate in the issues of today,
even innovative;
mindful always that so awesome an assignment
takes all there is of us—
and God.

WOLLASTON, MASSACHUSETTS

Ministers:
Gordon Wetmore, pastor
William Youngman, associate
Robert Brown, music
